

WORK YOU SHOULD HAVE DONE PRIOR TO DEFENSE

- Wrote a solid draft of your thesis using the UTEP Thesis Template.
- Reviewed your thesis using the “Write More Good Club” checklists and your Review Buddy.
- Submitted a reviewed thesis to Dr. Rumpf AT LEAST ONE MONTH PRIOR TO DEFENSE UTEP DEADLINE.
- Submitted your thesis to the Graduate School for formatting check two weeks prior to your defense.
- Submitted your thesis in PDF form to your committee two weeks prior to your defense date.
- Created your thesis defense presentation using the EM Lab template for Thesis Defense.
- Reviewed your presentation using the “Write More Good Club” checklists and then using your Review Buddy.
- Submitted your reviewed presentation to Dr. Rumpf AT LEAST TWO WEEKS PRIOR TO YOUR DEFENSE DATE.
- Created a high-quality defense flyer and distributed that at least one week prior to defense.
- Reserved a room for your defense that has proper audio/visual equipment.
- Organized and archived in your personal folder on the EM Lab drive everything you generated during your research.

WHAT TO BRING TO YOUR DEFENSE

- Dress professionally. Usually this means a suite and tie.
- Some sort of food and drink like hors d’œuvres, finger food, or other snacks. It is not a full meal.
- Wireless slide presenter or somebody to work the slides for you.
- Printouts of your defense slides so that each committee member has a copy. They may be in black/white and printed double-sided with two slides per page. However, you are welcome to make them fancier with binding if you wish.

- A black pen for your committee to sign the forms.
- All forms that need to be signed by your committee. At a minimum, these are
 1. Defense Completion Form for Master’s Students
 2. Thesis Cover Sheet

